Liability Release:

This contract for the above named horse or rider, is an agreement between Aimee Zabst and "Responsible Party" as specified above. "Responsible Party" has the authority to, and authorizes and releases Aimee to handle the horse and any equipment necessary to fulfill the specified contract.

Agreement to hold harmless and indemnify: The undersigned agrees to hold Aimee Zabst, her agents and employees harmless from any and all property damage or personal injury claims which may arise out of the performance of services. Further, the undersigned agrees to indemnify Aimee Zabst for any and all claims made against Aimee Zabst as a result of the undersigned's receipt of services, also including indemnification for any and all claims made by any other person accompanying the undersigned, at the express direction or for the benefit of the undersigned, whether with or without the express or implied permission of Aimee Zabst, the owners, agents or employees.

Aimee Zabst will perform the following, as specified in the Service Checklist or listed below, to the best of her ability. Due to the unpredictable nature of horses, the owner hereby acknowledges that handling horses for a specific purpose cannot be guaranteed, but every effort will be made to meet the specified goals. "Responsible Party" will be contacted if Aimee is unable to complete any tasks agreed upon.

Notes:

1. All Services are payable in advance.
2. If horse is unruly or misbehaved and requires extra time to perform the desired service, it will be considered training, and the training fee will be added. I reserve the right to not work with dangerous or destructive animals.
3. I, Aimee Zabst, reserve the right to notify a veterinarian if the owner is unreachable and the horse is in need of immediate medical care. Aimee Zabst assumes no ultimate responsibility for the health and welfare of the horse, or any veterinary services performed.
